The Call to Serve

In today's Gospel, Peter and Andrew were quite content with their careers as fishermen on the Sea of Galilee. They were not looking for any career changes. But Jesus came along and called them to serve the community. Jesus called them to pursue something more important than their careers. He called them to serve a higher goal: the goal of building up the community of faith which He called the Kingdom of God.

Jesus said to them, "Follow me." And he took them to see the poor and the rich, the healthy and the sick, and the leaders and the outcasts. Jesus said to Peter and Andrew, "Help me to pull all of these people together into one family. Help me to make it perfectly clear to the world that everyone belongs to God's family."

Peter and Andrew said "Yes" to that call and it meant a big sacrifice. They had to leave behind their careers and everything that they loved to do. But with a cheerful disposition and a willing spirit, they said Yes when Jesus called them to serve the common good.

We are called to be modern day disciples and that means that we are called to serve the common good. How? By advocating for the human family. We call everyone to respect the life and dignity of each person. We intentionally maintain solidarity with the poor. We call upon our leaders to change unjust social structures and to do what is necessary to protect family life in today's world.

Koinonia is a retreat opportunity for people to encounter Jesus Christ through an experience of Christian community. The theme of the Koinonia weekend is the Paschal Mystery – the death and resurrection of Jesus. We take this central teaching of our faith and show how it applies to our daily lives. He calls us each by name...to be one with each other. Join us in this Christian living experience designed especially for adults age 20 and older.

Retreats are held in Belle Prairie at the TEC center three miles north of Little Falls. The next retreat will be held on January 19th - 21st. Fr. David Maciej, will be the Spiritual Director. The weekend starts at 5:30 P.M. Friday and ends Sunday afternoon. Applications can be downloaded from the website: centralmnkoinonia.org or by calling Dorie Reiter at 320-217-2476. Or send an email to cmkoinonia@gmail.com to get an application. Cost of the weekend is $70. Scholarships are available for those in need.
