See What Love

The Father has Bestowed on Us

Wouldn't it be a privilege for us to be examined, as St. Paul was, for doing a good deed? St. Paul did what he did in the name of Jesus Christ as the one in whom and by whom we are saved. Then St. John celebrates how we may be called children of God, because of the love the Father has bestowed on us.

Love can compel us to do good things. We might not get a lame person to stand and walk, but we can lift someone's spirit enough that they know God's love has touched them.

Many of us sense the great love bestowed on us by our parents. That love opens the door for us to contemplate the love God shows us as his people, his children. Our parents might have held back something, even though they loved us ... but God hasn't held back at all. Instead, God has gone to extremes in showing us love.

So let's not hold back, but become willing to lift up someone who is down and needing God's hand to reach out with strength and healing. Jesus sends us out, too, just as he sent Paul and John, letting the power of his risen Self reach out to the world, even through us.

Fr. Greg

PLANNING PROCESS FOR THE DIOCESE OF SAINT CLOUD

St. Rita Parish will meet in the parish hall at 7:15 p.m. on Wednesday, April 25. All parishioners are invited to attend this meeting. The agenda is the same for each parish in the diocese:

1. What does it mean for a parish to have "quality" parish life?
2. What resources does a parish need to have in order to have that quality parish life?
3. How can we sustain 131 parishes with 57 priests under the age of 70?
4. How can we maintain a Catholic presence in the 16 counties of the Diocese of Saint Cloud?
5. What makes your parish special?

CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS - Next weekend we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Over 40% of dioceses in the United States are considered home mission territory because they are unable to fund the essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal and ease their struggle. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

FAITH FORMATION classes - Saturday, April 28.

FIRST COMMUNION – SUNDAY, APRIL 29, with Hospitality after Mass. Please keep these children in your prayers as they prepare to receive their First Holy Communion at Saint Rita's Church: Jemma Brown, Hunter Duffee, Matthew Gotvald, Broden Hoheisel, Katelyn Kruschek and Justin Novak.
